

More Than A Children's Story: Adam and Eve

This week's reading: Genesis 1-3

Discussion Guide: November 3, 2024

CHECK UP:

Memory Work: (based on selection from previous week)

Did you interact in any political discussions or view the political realm differently this past week?

OPEN:

- What was a highlight in your week this past week? What was a particular challenge you had?
- Who did you B.L.E.S.S. this past week? What action steps did you take?

READ and ASK: Genesis 1:26-31; 3:1-24; Exodus 34:5-7;

1 Corinthians 15:47-57; Romans 16:20; Revelation 22:1-5

- How do these verses show us the overarching story of the Bible?
- Why is it significant to understand we were created by God?
- Why is it significant that all humans were created in the image of God?
- Why is trusting that God is good (always) key to our faith?
  - o How did the serpent undermine the truth that God is good?
  - o How does he still do that for us today?

APPLY:

- What does it mean to you that even in the midst of the tragic story of the fall, that God announced his plan for the Messiah? (Genesis 3:15; Romans 16:20)
- In what ways do you struggle to trust in the goodness of God? How can this group help you?
- Why is it essential to see your daily walk through the lens of the biblical story?
  - o NEXT STEP: How do you need see your life more through the grand story of the Bible?

Memory Work:

The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet.
The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you. - Romans 16:20

Next Week's Reading:

Genesis 22:1-19; Hebrew 11:17-19